GENERAL.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 14th September 1885.

Camp No. 891.—The village of Muniraddipalya being now included within the Municipal limits of the City of Bangalore, the following paras will be substituted for Clauses I and XI of the revised description of the Municipal limits of the Town of Bangalore published with Notification No. 235, dated 14th September 1883:

I. The boundary line of the City of Bangalore commences at boundary stone No. VII of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, fixed in accordance with Para VIII of Notification No. 56, dated 17th May 1881, as amended by Notification dated 14th September 1883, and runs along the eastern boundary of the village of Muniraddipalya alias Matadahalli including Revenue Survey No. 50, and thence follows the northern boundary of Revenue Survey Nos. 50 and 3 and passes along the western and southern boundary of Revenue Survey Nos. 3, 1, 2 and 6, the latter belonging to the village of Vajyalikaval till it meets the City boundary stone No. 1.

XI. From the above description it will be seen that the Town of Bangalore includes within its limits the villages of Malenahalli, Hanumantapur, Bargemuddenahalli, Guttahalli, Bhogenahalli, Upparahalli, Mavalli, Annipur, Dodbailkhana, Gangammanagudipalya, Agrahara, Timmasandra, parts of Sampigehalli, Dand-Upparahalli and Byadarhalli and parts of Muniraddipalya alias Matadahalli.

The 22nd September 1885.

No. 130.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi villages, which have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars will be sold by public auction at the places and on the dates mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A.M. on the dates specified, and the villages will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Sub-Division officer may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within 15 days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5.—Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals; otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf, or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the villages will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Sub-Division officer will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
